

Nā Pua Ali'i

Garden Club of America Judges Commendations

Overall

Nā Pua Ali'i

The Garden Club of Honolulu for this exceptional Major Show "Na Pua Ali'i" in April 17-19, 2009, a Garden Club of America Major Show

Staging

Ele Potts, Heidi Conjugacion, Elizabeth Riegels

Extraordinary light and space enhancing the creative floral designs and distinctive horticulture

Schedule and Theme

Tanya Alston, Paulette Stone, Dotty Nitta, Claire Chao Falzarano

Starting with the theme of Hawaiian Royalty throughout the crafting of a perfect schedule inspiring a creative response in every division.

Signage

Lynn Murray, Vonnie Turner

Elegant graphics and clear signage

Workshops

Annelise Vogel, Dotty Nitta, Ann Kadowaki, Lisa Cavanah, Debbie Bocken

The judges recognize and commend the high level of club participation and the creativity, quality and visual appeal of the exhibits in all divisions. The credit is due in large part to the 17 workshops staged by capable, talented and giving club members. Thank you!

Entry Cards

Diane Hastert

Commendable organization and accuracy of entry cards with emphasis on the correct nomenclature.

Flower Arranging

Class 1 Coronation Novice Class

We commend your thoughtful and creative responses to the class

Horticulture

Class 3 Ho'onanea

All of the entries for Ho'onanea were so well done. It was difficult to decide the first, second and third. Each entry was true to the intent of the schedule. The horticultural perfection, plant compatibility and artistic merit were outstanding in all three.

Classes 9 – 10 Lighting the Way

An impressive horticultural adventure to perpetuate the state tree of Hawai'i.

Class 16 Lei Ola, Lei Ali'i

The containers facilitated imaginative design embracing the Hawaiian spirit.

Educational Exhibit I "Na Kihapai Pua Ali'i"

This exemplary display using gardens of royal residences exhibits the appropriate use of specific plant material for varying growing conditions. The well-researched and documented exhibit further demonstrates the importance of maintaining garden records.
